Glasgow Flower and Gift has been proudly serving the area since 1933. In 2013 Great Northern Development Corporation presented the current owners with Business of the year award. Great customer service, quality, and long-lasting floral arrangements are top priority. The shop offers a wide variety of gifts and fresh flowers as well as beautiful and creative arrangements to fit your needs. Pride of ownership shows. The well taken care of building, and updates are just some of amenities you will see. This business is turn key and ready to inspire a new owner who has the willingness to make it their own.
